Brand equity is the focus of both academics and practitioners; however, there is no paradigm among the brand equity studies by now. Most studies measure brand equity from perspective of consumer or from the company itself. On one hand, some researchers believe that consumers' subjective perception (e.g., attitude, assessment, satisfaction, etc.) of the brand is the key to brand equity ...

When I started Among the Branded, I wanted to write about a character who had to take a stand for something she believed in--and I wanted it to come about from an evolving (and unlikely) friendship. Plus, I do believe in chance encounters and how they can change a person's life, which became a focal point for me while writing several of the characters, but mainly Stephanie and Izzy. Thanks ...
